The Way to Love
The Teachings of Anthony de Mello

Join Richard Hennessey and Pastor Tim each Friday at 7:00pm in the Calvary oceanfront Sanctuary.

Anthony de Mello, a native of India, was a Jesuit priest, psychologist, spiritual director, and modern day mystic. His teachings were thought provoking and quite radical.

He drew from many diverse spiritual traditions, especially melding Buddhism with Christianity. Without doubt...the most significant change that came into Anthony’s teachings was the introduction of Vipassana meditation. Anthony taught through retreats, workshops, seminars, and books. As Anthony said: “The best religion in the world is the religion called Love... there is only one need: the need to love.” “The Way to Love” is the next set of teachings we will explore.

Hope to see you in class!
