HUKILAU FALL ASSEMBLY
Saturday, November 1, 2014
From 10:00am to 3:00pm

A Message from Pastor David Krueger:
The Hukilau Conference will hold it’s Fall Assembly on November 1 from 10am to 3pm, at Christ Lutheran (95-1361 Meheula Drive, Mililani.)
Each O’ahu congregation is encouraged to attend. Besides the normal agenda items, the conference will use the bulk of the time to participate in what the Pacifica Synod is calling “Walking Into the Future Together”. It’s being described as “a process of taking stock of the synod’s goals and priorities, which will help us better understand the traits we need in the new bishop as we go through the nomination and election process.” The election of a new bishop will take place at the synod assembly in May 2016.
Lunch will be provided by Christ Lutheran Church. Please bring $10/person to help cover the cost. In addition, please contact the CLC office, no later than Monday, October 27, with the number of people that will be attending from your congregation, as well as with any special dietary requests. You may email the CLC office office@clcmililani.org, or call 623-9229.

- Any help Dr. Lara Narita can give to rehabilitate victims of the sex industry deserve our prayerful support.
- Dengue, also known as break-back fever, is not a pleasant illness, and can cause kidney failure. Please pray Dr. David will recover without complications, so that he can resume his work.
- Prayers to help them decide whether they should continue to work in such a challenging environment for the sake and safety of their children.
