The Hukilau Needs You!

The planning is underway for an incredible Worship service in honor of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. We will gather on Saturday, October 14 at St. Andrews Cathedral in Honolulu. Worship begins at 3:00 pm and we have an amazing preacher coming from the Mainland; there will be a joint choir; and we have invited church leaders from throughout Hawaii to join us on that day. Now, we are asking Hukilau members to step forward and help. We Need:

1. Worship Greeters and Ushers. Please be at the Cathedral by 2pm.
2. Bakers: Following the worship service, we would like to provide homemade or store-bought backed goods. Please bring a dozen of your finest offering to the Cathedral by 2 pm.
3. Fellowship Hosts: We are looking for folds to help set up the food or stay after the fellowship time to clean up.

Want to help? Please contact Pastor Ruth Peterson, Revruthp@gmail.com or 808-236-7814.

A very special mahalo to all of the amazingly talented chefs that donated their time and energy to bring chili and pies to our cookoff. The youth had so much fun getting to see old friends and makes new ones. What a special way to congregate and break bread together.
