11th Sunday after Pentecost

August 9, 2015

10:00 am

God calls us to be a welcoming people! Welcome to people new to faith, to Christians of every flavor, and to long time Lutherans. Welcome to all with no church home, who need strength, want to follow, have doubts, or do not believe. Welcome to new guests and old friends. Welcome to people of every age and size, color and culture, ability and gift, to gay and straight, to old and young, to believers and questioners, and questioning believers. This is a place where we live past the labels, where we are welcome to celebrate and grieve, rejoice and recover. This is a place where our lives are made new. Welcome to worship God on this day!
WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Jesus says that the bread he gives for the life of the world is his flesh, and whoever eats this bread has eternal life now and will be raised on the last day. In Ephesians Paul tells us what this life Jesus gives us looks like, this life we live as those marked with the seal of the Holy Spirit in baptism. We live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. The whole purpose of life is giving yourself for the other.

SOUNDING OF THE PŪ

Please gather as the sounding of the conch shell calls us to worship.

GATHERING, organ

“Water-nymph” from Suite Maritime

RINGING OF THE BELL

During the Ringing of the Bell please center your thoughts on Makua—God the Creator, Keiki Kane—Jesus Christ our Redeemer, and ‘Uhane Hemolele—the Holy Spirit our Comforter.

GREETING, Kahu Tim

KAHU: Precious children of God:
      may the love of God,
      the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
      and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

ALL: And also with you.
GATHERING SONG

“Bread for the World”

Refrain

Bread for the world: a world of hunger. Wine for all peoples: people who thirst.

May we who eat be bread for others. May we who drink pour out our love.

Verses

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace.
3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast.

Broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
Poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps.
At which the rich and pow’rful have become the least.

Where we divide your people you are waiting there
Where we are tired and weary you are waiting there
Where we survive on others in our human greed

Where we divide your people you are waiting there

CONFESSION OF SIN, Kahu Tim

KAHU: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God,
the Creator of wind and rain, field and ocean,
the Bread of Life coming down from above,
the Power at work within us and this world.

ALL: Amen.

KAHU: Before God and in the company of our sisters and brothers, let us confess our sin.

> Silence is kept for reflection.

God and Creator of all,

ALL: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed.
We have thought better of ourselves than others.
We have told lies,
said hurtful things,
acted in ways we wish we could take back,
and looked the other way when action was needed.
In your mercy, O God,
forgive us, cleanse us, and heal us,
for the sake of Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

KAHU: People of God:

If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation:
everything old has passed away;
everything has become new!
In Christ, + you are a new creation:
your sins are taken away
and you are made new.
Be kind to one another,
tenderhearted,
forgiving one another,
as God in Christ has forgiven you.

ALL: Amen.
PRAYER OF THE DAY standing

ALL: Gracious God, your blessed Son came down from heaven to be the true bread that gives life to the world. Give us this bread always, that he may live in us and we in him, and that, strengthened by this food, we may live as his body in the world, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

GREETING OF GUESTS and SHARING OF ALOHA standing

Kahu: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

WE HEAR THE WORD

FIRST READING 1 Kings 19: 4–8

First Kings chapter 18 describes the contest between Elijah and the prophets of Baal. The contest proves that the Lord is God; and afterwards Elijah orders the killing of the Baal prophets. Angered by the deaths of her prophets, Queen Jezebel threatens to kill Elijah. This reading finds Elijah fleeing, fatigued, and in utter despair.

One: [Elijah] went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

PSALM sung responsively

Psalm 34: 1–8

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; the praise of God shall ever be in my mouth.
2 I will glory in the LORD; let the lowly hear and rejoice.
3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; let us exalt God's name together.
4 I sought the LORD, who answered me and delivered me from all my terrors.
5 Look upon the LORD and be radiant, and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction, and the LORD heard me and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear the LORD and delivers them.
8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; happy are they who take refuge in God!

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4: 25—5: 2

Christians are called to be imitators of God. This does not mean Christians are perfect. Rather, the Spirit is at work in our lives so that our actions and attitudes genuinely reflect the love and forgiveness we have received through Christ and his death.

ONE: 25 So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another. 26 Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, 27 and do not make room for the devil.

28 Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy.

29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear.

30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption.

31 Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice,

32 and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

5:1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION standing

GOSPEL standing, read responsively  John 6: 35, 41–51

After feeding more than five thousand people in the wilderness, Jesus teaches them regarding the true significance of this remarkable sign.

KAHU:

35 Jesus said to [the crowd,] "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

41 Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

ALL:

"Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

KAHU: 43 Jesus answered them, "Do not complain among yourselves. 44 No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. 46 Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.

47 "Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. 48 I am the bread of life. 49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. 50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

ALL: Praise to you, O Christ.

KAHU: Gathered by the Holy Spirit and fed by the word, we come together as the people of God to pray for the church, the world, and all in need.

A brief silence.

O God, build up your church throughout the world. Teach it to share the living bread from heaven that you provide so that all are fed. Hear us, O God.

ALL:  Aloha ke Akua.  (God is love; love is God.)
KAHU: Protect all of your creation from the destructiveness of storms, fires, and draught. Provide clean water for people and animals alike, and defend the reefs and fish from land runoffs. Hear us, O God.

ALL:  Aloha ke Akua.
KAHU: Draw leaders away from bitterness and into your ways of kindness and mercy. Replace blame and malice with forgiveness and justice. Hear us, O God.

ALL:  Aloha ke Akua.
KAHU: Sustain all whose journey feels too hard to bear. Restore the hope of all who despair. Comfort those who are poor, oppressed, persecuted. We especially remember our homeless sisters and brothers and pray for their safety, protection, and wellbeing. Hear us, O God.

ALL:  Aloha ke Akua.
KAHU: Bless the tribes and all those who prepare this space for worship. Bless the greeters, ushers, communion servers, those who set-up, those who clean-up, and those prepare the bread and wine for our worship. Hear us, O God.

ALL:  Aloha ke Akua.

W.H.A.L.E., a time of thanks for answered prayer and prayer requests.

KAHU: Keep us in communion with our ancestors in the faith until we are raised up on the last day and join them at the table of the Lamb. Hear us, O God.

ALL:  Aloha ke Akua.
KAHU: Into your loving hands, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your abundant mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

ALL:  Amen.

WE ARE FED

GREAT THANKSGIVING standing

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
The Sanctus is sung following, “...we praise your name and join their unending hymn.”
KAHU: In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: “Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” In a similar manner, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks and gave it for all to drink, saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

THE LORD’S PRAYER singing

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

At Calvary by the Sea all those who have a relationship with Jesus Christ and those who are seeking such a relationship are invited to experience the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of Holy Communion. You are invited to follow the direction of the Kahu and come forward to encircle the altar area. There are kneelers for those who prefer to kneel. Dip the bread in either the red wine or the white grape juice and then eat the element.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION seated

KAHU: Wise and generous God, we thank you that at this holy table you have fed us again with the food of everlasting life. Send us with your blessing to seek the good of our neighbor and call others to your feast; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

ALL: Amen.
HOLY BAPTISM AND SENDING

SENDING HYMN 525 standing  “You Are Holy”

During the singing of the hymn please gather on the Makai side for the ocean Holy Baptism.

HOLY BAPTISM OF Maily Schopf Schultz, and Arwen Makanaokalani Schultz, Kahu Tim

When addressed the congregation responds:

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Let us welcome the newly baptized.

We welcome you into the body of Christ and into the mission we share: join us in giving thanks and praise to God and bearing God’s creative and redeeming word to all the world.

BENEDICTION AND SENDING, Kahu Tim

KAHU: Almighty and merciful God,
     Father, + Son, and Holy Spirit,
     bless,
     preserve,
     and keep you this day and forevermore.

ALL: Amen.

KAHU: Go in peace.
     Live in love, as Christ loved us.
