2nd Sunday after Pentecost

June 18, 2017
10:00 am

God calls us to be a welcoming people! Welcome to people new to faith, to Christians of every flavor, and to long time Lutherans. Welcome to all with no church home, who need strength, want to follow, have doubts, or do not believe. Welcome to new guests and old friends. Welcome to people of every age and size, color and culture, ability and gift, to gay and straight, to old and young, to believers and questioners, and questioning believers. This is a place where we live past the labels, where we are welcome to celebrate and grieve, rejoice and recover. This is a place where our lives are made new. Welcome to worship God on this day!

GATHERING, Ina

“Look Up to the Sky”

SOUNDING OF THE PŪ

Please gather as the sounding of the conch shell calls us to worship.

A TIME TO BE STILL (RINGING OF THE BELL)

During the Stillness and the Ringing of the Bell please center your thoughts on Makua—God the Creator, Keiki Kane—Jesus Christ our Redeemer, and ‘Uhane Hemolele—the Holy Spirit our Comforter.
GREETING standing
KAHU: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
ALL: And also with you.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS, Kahu Tim
KAHU: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, full of compassion and mercy, abounding in steadfast love.
ALL: Amen.
KAHU: Trusting God’s promise of forgiveness, let us confess our sin against God and one another.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

Eternal God our creator,
ALL: in you we live and move and have our being.
   Look upon us, your children, the work of your hands.
   Forgive us all our offenses.
   Cleanse us from proud thoughts and empty desires.
By your grace draw us near to you, our refuge and our strength; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

KAHU: Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit given to us. In the mercy of almighty God, Christ died for us while we still were sinners; and for his sake, God + forgives you all your sins.
ALL: Amen.

GATHERING, standing “A Place at the Table”
1. For ev'ry one born, a place at the table,
   clean water and bread,
   revising the roles, deciding the share,
   to live without fear, and simply to be,
   shelter, a space, a safe place for growing.

2. For woman and man, a place at the table,
   a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
   the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled,
   wisdom and grace, dividing the power,
   in anger, in hurt, a mindset of mercy.

3. For young and for old, a place at the table,
   a busier, a bused, with need to forgive,
   a busy child in hands that are wrinkled,
   with wisdom and grace, dividing the power,
   to work, to speak out, to witness and worship.

4. For just and unjust, a place at the table,
   a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
   to live without fear, and simply to be,
   shelter, a space, a safe place for growing.

5. For ev'ry one born, a place at the table,
   clean water and bread,
   revising the roles, deciding the share,
   to live without fear, and simply to be,
   shelter, a space, a safe place for growing.

And God will delight when we are creators of justice and joy, yes, God will delight
when we are creators of justice, justice and joy!
PRAYER OF THE DAY standing

ALL: God of compassion, you have opened the way for us and brought us to yourself. Pour your love into our hearts, that, overflowing with joy, we may freely share the blessings of your realm and faithfully proclaim the good news of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

GREETING OF GUESTS AND SHARING OF ALOHA standing

KAHU: May God’s aloha be with you.
ALL: And also with you.

WE HEAR THE WORD

FIRST READING

Exodus 19: 2–8a

At Sinai God assured Israel, "You shall be my treasured possession," and commissioned them to serve as mediating priests for the nations. The people commit themselves completely to God's will.

ONE: [The Israelites] had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: "You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites."

7 So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him. 8 The people all answered as one: "Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do."

PSALM, Calvary Choir

"Psalm 121"

I lift up my eyes to the hills from where will my help come?
My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.
He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in
From this time on and forevermore.

SECOND READING

Romans 5: 1–8

We are no longer God's enemies but have peace with God, because we were brought into a right relationship with God through Christ's death. A tested character has been forged for us which empowers endurance in the midst of suffering and hope for final salvation.

ONE: 1 Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. 3 And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, 4 and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, 5 and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. 8 But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION standing

Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

GOSPEL standing

Matthew 9: 35—10: 8

The mission of Jesus' followers is to continue the mission of Jesus himself. Here, he instructs his first disciples how they might proclaim the gospel through their words and deeds.

KAHU: Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment

SERMON HYMN 787 standing

“On Eagle’s Wings”

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH standing

“All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH standing

Kahu: Called together in the Spirit’s embrace, let us pray for the mending of God’s world.

A brief silence.

Steadfast God, you send your church as laborers into your harvest.

All: Heal our divisions and unite us in mission. Make us one at your table, Aloha ke Akua (God is love; love is God).

KAHU: Faithful Creator, protect your earth and breathe life into its future.
ALL: Stir our hearts to compassion, that we become healers for the sake of your whole creation as it is made new, Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: Holy One, you desire peace for all nations.
ALL: Give rulers and citizens wisdom in the use of power, that wars may cease and all who suffer exile, hunger, and terror find safe haven, Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: Compassionate One, you have brought us to yourself.
ALL: Stay near to all who suffer broken hearts, fearful spirits, and disruptive illness. Bring healing and hope to your people, Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: Abba, Father, your love for your children is boundless.
ALL: Bless all who father among us and all who yearn for a protective father. Grant wisdom, patience, and good humor. Thank you for those who have shown us fatherly care, Aloha ke Akua.

W.H.A.L.E., a time of thanks for answered prayer and prayer requests.

KAHU: Living Lord, all who live and all who die belong to you.
ALL: Thank you for all whose lives have witnessed to your glory. Comfort all who mourn, Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: All these things, and whatever else you see that we need, we entrust to your care through Christ our Lord.
ALL: Amen.

Anyone desiring individual prayer and intercessions please contact Kahu Tim or members of the Stephen Ministry team at the conclusion of the worship service.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS, Nā Wahine  “The Beauty of
My friend and I would sometimes roam the trails of Mauna Kea, and in the evening we’d come home to see her standing there.

The moon shines all around her when she sleeps,
The clouds stand beside her when she weeps.

And I could be forgotten, and a thousand miles away, still I would recall the beauty of Mauna Kea.

Now to any land you go she will be with you if you love her like I do, O Mauna Kea.

And I live in the city now, and I see different things; in the nights when I’m alone she is in my dreams.

The wind spins all around her when she waits.
The sun spreads its warmth across her face.

And I could be forgotten and a thousand miles away, still I would recall the beauty of Mauna Kea.

HOLY COMMUNION HYMN standing

“Bread for the World”

REFRAIN

Bread for the world: a world of hunger. Wine for all peoples: people who thirst.

May we who eat be bread for others. May we who drink pour out our love.

VERSSES

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain.
   Where we divide your people you are waiting there.
   on bent-ed knee to wash our feet with endless care.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps.
   Where we are tired and weary you are waiting there.
   to be the way which beck-ons us beyond despair.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and pow’rful have become the least.
   Where we survive on others in our human greed.
   you walk among us begging for your ev’ry need.

GREAT THANKSGIVING standing

KAHU: The Lord be with you.
ALL: And also with you.
KAHU: Lift up your hearts.
ALL: We lift them to the Lord.
KAHU: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
ALL: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

KAHU: In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: “Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

In a similar manner, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks and gave it for all to drink, saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

INTERCESSIONS FOR HEALING

Following Kahu Tim’s direction an opportunity will be given for anointing and intercessory prayers for healing. Calvary by the Sea, in its ministry of healing, does not replace the gifts of God that come through the scientific community nor does it promise a cure. Rather Calvary by the Sea offers and celebrates gifts such as these: God’s presence with strength and comfort in time of suffering, God’s promise of wholeness and peace, and God’s love embodied in this community of faith.
At Calvary by the Sea all those who have a relationship with Jesus Christ and those who are seeking such a relationship are invited to experience the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of Holy Communion. You are invited to follow the direction of the Kahu and come forward to encircle the altar area. There are kneelers for those who prefer to kneel. Dip the bread in either the red wine or the white grape juice and then eat the element.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION seated

KAHU: Jesus Christ, host of this meal, you have given us not only this bread and cup, but your very self, that we may feast on your great love. Filled again by these signs of your grace, may we hunger for your reign of justice, may we thirst for your way of peace, for you are Lord forevermore.

ALL: Amen.

SENDING HYMN standing  “Has Jesus Stood in Front of Me”
(Sung to ST. ANNE, “O God, Our Help in Ages Past”)

Has Jesus stood in front of me, unseen before my eyes?
He comes, a weary refugee, and calls through strangers’ cries.

Has Jesus met me in the street in someone I found strange—
In one who seeks a bite to eat, or asks for extra change?

Has Jesus knocked upon my door and sought a place to stay?
If I refuse to bless the poor, will God turn me away?

Will Jesus find us puffed with pride, or humble, last, and least?
He calls all hungry souls inside to share in God’s great feast.

ALL: Thanks be to God.
