God calls us to be a welcoming people! Welcome to people new to faith, to Christians of every flavor, and to long time Lutherans. Welcome to all with no church home, who need strength, want to follow, have doubts, or do not believe. Welcome to new guests and old friends. Welcome to people of every age and size, color and culture, ability and gift, to gay and straight, to old and young, to believers and questioners, and questioning believers. This is a place where we live past the labels, where we are welcome to celebrate and grieve, rejoice and recover. This is a place where our lives are made new. Welcome to worship God on this day!
WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

On this day we celebrate the heart of our faith: the gospel of Christ—the good news—that makes us free! Though we give thanks for the events of the sixteenth-century Reformation that brought renewal to the church of that time, we pray that the Holy Spirit would continue to unite the church today in its proclamation and witness to the world. In the waters of baptism we are made one body; we pray for the day that all Christians will also be one at the Lord's table.

WE HEAR THE WORD

CALL TO SCRIPTURE, TESTIMONIAL, Dr. Lara Narita

FIRST READING Jeremiah 31: 31–34

The renewed covenant will not be breakable, but like the old covenant it will expect the people to live upright lives. To know the Lord means that one will defend the cause of the poor and needy (Jer. 22:16). The renewed covenant is possible only because the Lord will forgive iniquity and not remember sin. Our hope lies in a God who forgets.
The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

SECOND READING

Paul's words stand at the heart of the preaching of Martin Luther and the other Reformation leaders. No human beings make themselves right with God through works of the law. We are brought into a right relationship with God through the divine activity centered in Christ's death. This act is a gift of grace that liberates us from sin and empowers our faith in Jesus Christ.

Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For "no human being will be justified in his sight" by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin. But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; \(^{26}\) it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus.

\(^{27}\) Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith. \(^{28}\) For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION standing

Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

GOSPEL standing, read responsively

John 8: 31–36

Jesus speaks of truth and freedom as spiritual realities known through his word. He reveals the truth that sets people free from sin.

KAHU: 31 Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; \(^{32}\) and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." \(^{33}\) They answered him,

ALL: "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?

KAHU: 34 Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. \(^{35}\) The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. \(^{36}\) So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed."

KAHU: The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: Praise to you, O Christ.

A brief silence.

Reforming God, we give thanks for the newly baptized. Renew the covenant you have made with your people and your creation.

ALL: Write your law on our hearts so that all we say and do proclaims the grace you have shown us. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

KAHU: Reinvigorate those people and places that are contaminated, desolate, and barren through human actions.

ALL: Breathe new life into people, plants, animals, reefs, oceans, and watersheds. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

KAHU: Reconcile the nations to one another. Where long-standing disputes remain, raise up new generations with a zeal for understanding.

ALL: Bring a just peace where there is deep-rooted conflict. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

KAHU: Revive those who live under the weight of anxiety, despair, or illness.

ALL: Carry their burdens, and uplift them by your compassionate Spirit. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

KAHU: Redeem your church from self-serving sins.

ALL: Turn our hearts to people outside these walls, and transform this community into a place where all may find redemption and hope. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

W.H.A.L.E., a time of thanks for answered prayer and prayer requests.

KAHU: As we remember the witness of your saints, we pray you remember your promise of mercy for us.

ALL: Reunite us with all your holy ones when you come in fullness. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

KAHU: Gather these concerns and all who are in need into your abundant care, O God, remembering your promise of mercy, through Christ our Lord.

ALL: Amen.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS, Calvary Choir “In This Very Room”

In this very room there’s quite enough love for one like me,
And in this very room there’s quite enough joy for one like me,
And there’s quite enough hope and quite enough power to chase away any gloom,
For Jesus, Lord Jesus is in this very room.

And in this very room there’s quite enough love for all of us....

And in this very room there’s quite enough love for all the world....

SANCTUS

The Sanctus is said following, “...we praise your name and join their unending hymn.”

Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

KAHU: In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying: “Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” In a similar manner, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks and gave it for all to drink, saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.
