6th Sunday after Pentecost

July 20, 2014
7:30 am

God calls us to be a welcoming people! Welcome to people new to faith, to Christians of every flavor, and to long time Lutherans. Welcome to all with no church home, who need strength, want to follow, have doubts, or do not believe. Welcome to new guests and old friends. Welcome to people of every age and size, color and culture, ability and gift, to gay and straight, to old and young, to believers and questioners, and questioning believers. This is a place where we live past the labels, where we are welcome to celebrate and grieve, rejoice and recover. This is a place where our lives are made new. Welcome to worship God on this day!
WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

God's word is like the rain that waters the earth and brings forth vegetation. It is also like the sower who scatters seed indiscriminately. Our lives are like seeds sown in the earth. Even from what appears to be little, dormant, or dead, God promises a harvest. At the Lord's table we are fed with the bread of life, that we may bear fruit in the world.

SOUNDING OF THE PŪ

Please gather as the sounding of the conch shell calls us to worship.

GATHERING, piano

RINGING OF THE BELL

During the Ringing of the Bell please center your thoughts on Makua—God the Creator, Keiki Kane—Jesus Christ our Redeemer, and ʻUhane Hemolele—the Holy Spirit our Comforter.

GREETING, Kahu Tim

Kahu: Beloved children of God:
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
The love of God,
And the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all!

All: And also with you.
CONFESSION OF SIN,  Kahu Tim

KAHU: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, who forgives all our sin,
  whose mercy endures forever.

ALL:  Amen.

KAHU: In the presence of God, who sees our hearts and our minds, let us confess our sin.

    Silence is kept for reflection.

God of strength,

ALL:  we confess that we are captive to the power of sin that dwells within us.

    We say otherwise, but we really do put ourselves first.
    We chase after what we think will make us happy.
    We are never satisfied.
    We yearn to do good, but we find ourselves doing the opposite.

O God, we make ourselves the center of the universe.
    Save us from ourselves.
    Make us alive to you in Christ Jesus.
    Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

KAHU:  Sisters and brothers:

    All have fallen short of the glory of God. It is through the cross that we are justified by God’s grace. This is a gift. Be assured that nothing can separate us from the love of God in + Christ Jesus, in whom we have forgiveness of sin, life, and salvation.

ALL:  Amen.
KYRIE (verse one), standing

“Mālama Pono”

Morning breaks the earth awakes and dawn appears.
Seek the way of unity compassion and love.
Every moment of your life you are God’s gift.

In the light that shines so bright a new day.
Touching hearts by serving one another.
Just as Christ was gift to us to long ago.

Yesterday has passed away tomorrow’s not here.
Healing hurts and soothing wounds, comfort the sick.
Share your gift of love and hope in all that you do.

Live today with faith, hope and love.
Walking with each other in love.
Share the truth God’s love is forever.

Mālama pono i ke-ka-hi i ke-ka-hi live in faith and hope and love by helping each other be instruments of peace and hope for all in this world. And God’s peace will be with you.

And God’s peace will be with you.

KAHU:  Lord, we give you Glory for the forgiveness of our sins.
ALL:  Thanks be to God!

GLORIA (verse one), standing

“Ka Mana’o ’I’o”

Ka mana-ʻo-ʻi-ʻo, o ko kā-kou A-ku-a, Faithful, faithful is our God.

Verses

1. In love there is no one more faithful than our God, who brings the light into our darkness,
   the God who shares the breath of life in you and me,
   all living things upon the earth.

2. In quiet moments God whispers tenderly to help each other on our way,
   for God is good and holds us as we sleep,
   then wakes us with the morning light.

3. The mercy of our God is ours to share each day, the mystery of unending love;
   to be God’s hands and heart, God’s tenderness and care,
   God’s faithful people in the world.
PRAYER OF THE DAY standing

ALL: Faithful God, most merciful judge, you care for your children with firmness and compassion. By your Spirit nurture us who live in your kingdom, that we may be rooted in the way of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

GREETING OF GUESTS and SHARING OF ALOHA standing

KAHU: The Lord be with you.
ALL: And also with you.

WE HEAR THE WORD

FIRST READING Isaiah 44: 6–8

God claims the right to sole rule, because God announces things that actually do happen, while supposed divine opponents remain silent. God is Israel's redeemer, that is, the best brother or sister they ever had.

ONE: 6 Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. 7 Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be. 8 Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

SECOND READING Romans 8: 12–25
For Paul, true spirituality means that we experience the reality of the Spirit, which enables us to pray as God's children, keeps us in solidarity with creation, and gives us unseen hope that God will liberate us and creation from bondage to death and decay.

ONE:

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—

for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him. I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us.

For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen?

But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

"Ka Manaʻo ʻIʻo"

Ka ma-na-ʻo-ʻi-ʻo, o ko kā-kou A-ku-a, Faith-ful, faith-ful is our God.

Ka ma-na-ʻo-ʻi-ʻo, o ko kā-kou A-ku-a, Faith-ful, faith-ful is our God.
Jesus tells a parable about the co-existence of good and evil in this world. God's judgment will remove all evildoers and causes of sin, but not until the end of human history.

KAHU:

Matthew 13: 24–30, 36–43

Jesus put before [the crowds] another parable: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' The slaves said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' But he replied, 'No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying,

ALL:  "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field."

KAHU:

He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!"

ALL:  Praise to you, O Christ.
SERMON, Kahu Tim  “Saint and Sinner—TOGETHER!!”

SERMON HYMN 608 standing  “Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling”

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH standing

KAHU: Filled by the Spirit, let us join the whole people of God in Christ Jesus in praying for the church, those in need, and all of God’s creation.

_A brief silence._

Lord of the harvest, sow the seeds of your word throughout the world, that all your children grow into your kingdom. Use our hands to tend your garden, wherever it may be. Lord, in your mercy,

ALL: hear our prayer.

KAHU: Send the tradewinds to bring much-needed rain and blow the hope of what is unseen through your creation, that it be set free from decay to bear good fruit. Lord, in your mercy,

ALL: hear our prayer.

KAHU: Lord of all nations, guide our leaders with your strength and wisdom as they search for common ground. Through your mercy show them the way to justice and peace. Lord, in your mercy,

ALL: hear our prayer.

KAHU: Listen to the cries of your people waiting patiently for your healing hand and comforting Spirit. Ease the sufferings of this present time and fill us with hope. Lord, in your mercy,

ALL: hear our prayer.

KAHU: Teach your way, O Lord, to our congregation. Help us walk in your truth, grow together in your word, mirror your patience, treat one another with kindness, and sing your praises with undivided hearts. Lord, in your mercy,

ALL: hear our prayer.

_W.H.A.L.E., a time of thanks for answered prayer and prayer requests._
Kahu: Lord of hosts, you are the first and the last, gathering all those who have gone before us into one. Thank you for your steadfast love and for their faithful witness. Lord, in your mercy,

All: hear our prayer.

Kahu: Into your loving hands, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your abundant mercy; through Jesus Christ, our Savior.

All: Amen.

Anyone desiring individual prayer and intercessions please contact Kahu Tim or members of the Stephen Ministry team at the conclusion of the worship service.

GREAT THANKSGIVING standing

KAHU: The Lord be with you.
ALL: And also with you.
KAHU: Lift up your hearts.
ALL: We lift them to the Lord.
KAHU: Let us give thanks to the lord our God.
ALL: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

SANCTUS standing

“Song of the Body of Christ”

The Sanctus is sung following, “...we praise your name and join their unending hymn.”

We come to share our story, we come to break the bread,
We come to know our rising from the dead.
We are called to heal the broken, to be hope for the poor,
You will lead and we shall follow, you will be the breath of life;
We will live and sing "A-lo-ha." "Al-le-lu-ia" is our song.
we are called to feed the hungry at our door.
living water, we are thirsting for your light.
May we live in love and peace our whole life long.

“Song of the Body of Christ,” text by David Haas; music, traditional Hawaiian, “No Ke Ano ’Ahi’ahi.”
Music used by permission (One.License.net A-714410).

KAHU: In the night in which he was betrayed our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying:
“Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” In a similar manner, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks and gave it for all to drink, saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

THE LORD'S PRAYER in unison

ALL: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

At Calvary by the Sea all those who have a relationship with Jesus Christ and those who are seeking such a relationship are invited to experience the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of Holy Communion. You are invited to follow the direction of the Kahu and come forward to encircle the altar area. There are kneelers for those who prefer to kneel. Dip the bread in either the red wine or the white grape juice and then eat the element.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION seated

KAHU: We thank you, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have fed us in a way our hearts can understand, with the saving body and blood of Jesus Christ. Enliven us by your presence in this meal, that we may be your presence in the world, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

ALL: Amen.

WE ARE SENT
BENEDICTION AND SENDING, Kahu Tim

KAHU: May God the sower make you good and fertile soil.
    May Christ the seed
    bloom and grow in your words and actions.
    May the fruitful Spirit
    bring forth a bountiful yield in your lives.
    God the Father,
    + Son,
    and Holy Spirit
    bless you now and forever.

ALL: Amen.

KAHU: Go in peace. Serve the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God.
