BIO

Addie Behm was born and raised in Southern California as the middle child of seven. She moved to Hawaii in 2006 for college and immediately felt “home.” After graduating from UH Manoa with a BS in Family Resources, Addie worked for FETCH (the Family Education Training Center of Hawaii) as a youth counselor, as a special events planner for the Armed Services YMCA, and as a youth activities counselor at Aulani, a Disney Resort and Spa. After about eight years on Oahu, Addie moved back to the states to do a year-long road trip, visiting all fifty states along the way. In 2016 she found herself back in California where she worked as the Director of Youth Ministries at Ascension Lutheran Church in Thousand Oaks for five years. It was through this job Addie met her husband, love of her life, Nathan Maxwell-Doherty. They were married in June of 2023, and made the move back to Oahu in July of 2023. They live in Hawaii Kai with their 120lb lap-dog, Maisie, a Bernese Mountain dog/ Old English sheep dog mix. Addie loves dogs! She also loves working with people of all ages. Addie works at Lunalilo Home as a Program Coordinator for their Senior Adult Day Center. When she’s not working, Addie enjoys taking her dog to the beach, doing house projects with Nate, hiking and snorkeling, hosting family and friends, reading, crafting, and celebrating every single holiday and season!
