BIO

Eric serves as an Associate Minister and in process towards ordination with the ELCA. He grew up in the suburbs of Birmingham, AL where he attended Samford University with a major in Sociology. He is married to Cristy, a fourth-grade teacher at Hawaii Baptist Academy, and they have two kids, Abigail (13) and Everett (10). Eric received his Master of Divinity degree from Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond, VA. Beginning in 2002, he has served in various positions in churches in Alabama, Virginia, Tennessee and Hawaii. The church members of Tabernacle Baptist Church, who belong to the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship denomination, ordained Eric on April 25, 2010. Although Eric now serves as the youth minister, he also works full-time as the Owner and CEO of Hawaiian Isles Restoration, a full-service restoration company serving residents all over Oahu. Besides enjoying most of his time with his wife and kids in the Kamehameha Heights area, he also enjoys watching college and professional football, as well as Formula 1 racing and taking his dog, Rosie, a mini golden doodle on long neighborhood walks.
