BIO

Minister Grace Lee was born and raised in Honolulu, Hawai'i. She is a graduate of Kaiser High School, the University of Hawaii and Fuller Theological Seminary. While in seminary, Grace was called into hospital chaplaincy. She's been a chaplain for 6 years and has served at Hoag Hospital in Newport Beach, CA, Kapiolani Medical Center for Women and Children and at Straub Medical Center. Grace serves as Associate Minister and is in the candidacy process for ordination with the ELCA. She is married to her wife Debbie and they enjoy traveling, cooking, listening to podcasts and spending time with their niece Piper. Some of Grace's hobbies include playing the guitar, watching movies and checking out new restaurants.
