

Pastor Margrethe (Ma-gray-da) Kleiber grew up in Wahiawa and attended Trinity Lutheran Church and School. After graduating from Leilehua High School, she studied at Yale University, where she met her future spouse, Tony Kleiber.

The Lutheran Church of Honolulu was her sponsoring congregation when she attended Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkeley, California. She was ordained at LCH in 1993.

Pastor Kleiber has served congregations in California, the UK, Northern Virginia, and Washington, D.C. She specializes in interim ministry and has served six congregations in this capacity.

During her free time, she looks forward to cooking (and eating), walking on the beach, curling up with a good book, and cuddling her cat, Simba.
