

Valerie Coryell

Valerie has been a Kalihi Valley girl for most of her life, and an educator at Hawaii Baptist Academy for most of her adulthood. Although teaching takes up an inordinate amount of her "free" time, she sometimes manages to squeeze in reading, knitting, music, and -- her latest hobby -- pickleball. Valerie, Derek, and their two kids (Verily and Novella) found a loving, welcoming church home at CBTS after a certain Easter egg hunt this past spring.
